GÖRG advises Blumenbecker on first-time syndicated financing

GÖRG Partnerschaft von Rechtsanwälten mbB advised the Blumenbecker Group from Beckum on a syndicated financing. A team led by Cologne partner Dr. Thomas Lange assisted the group in taking out the first syndicated loan in the company's history by providing banking and financing law advice.

The Blumenbecker Group is an international industrial services provider with locations in eight countries on three continents. With more than 1,200 employees, the group specialises in industrial automation, industrial trading and industrial service and offers national and international customers tailor-made solutions and complimentary services for process automation, control technology, industrial maintenance and industrial product needs.
