INVEST INTELLIGENTLY – WITH US

Well-Earned trust: our expertise in private equity

GÖRG is one of the top independent corporate law firms in Germany, with many years of consultation experience in private equity transactions.

Best practice with full service

Our private equity experts offer consultation to financial investors acting nationally and internationally regarding company acquisitions, including tax arrangements, acquisition financing and refinancing, as well as exit consultation after trade sales, IPO or refinancing. We provide support for complex transactions, whether to private equity funds or target companies. GÖRG has earned an excellent reputation for itself, particularly when it comes to acquiring and restructuring distressed companies. As a full-service firm, we offer you the pooled expertise of our specialists across all sectors that are relevant to your transactions, whether labour law, corporate law, financial law, tax law, antitrust law, procedural law or real estate law: entirely at your service.

An international network of expertise across borders

We guarantee efficient settlement of complex cross-border transactions from one source with our international partner firms, always connecting you with the best fit for your needs through ongoing quality controls. Our integrated teams have comprehensive industry expertise, particularly in the automotive, financial institutions, chemical, energy, trade, life sciences, infrastructure, logistics, real estate sectors, as well as telecommunications, media and technology.
